

A world map illustrating the global distribution of the genus Euphorbia. The map is color-coded to represent the number of species per country, with a legend indicating four levels: red (highest number of species), orange, yellow, and green (lowest number of species). The distribution is highly concentrated in Africa, particularly in the central and southern regions, and in the Americas. Australia and parts of Asia and Europe show lower diversity.

